

2023 Dairy Calf/Heifer Questions

ALL QUESTIONS ARE FROM THE DAIRY RESOURCE BOOK

EXCEPT NUMBER 12

1. Whenever you treat your animal there are 7 things you should keep a record of.

What are 3 of these:

2. What are the 6 dairy cattle breeds?

3. Medication needs to be given according to label instructions. What do the following mean?

A) SQ (subcutaneous)-

B) IM (intramuscular)-

C) IV (intravenous)-

D) O or PO (orally)-

4. What 2 things let you know a calf is ready to weaned?

5. Which stomach functions as the primary stomach in a calf?

6. What is the most common health problem in calves?

7. Calves should receive _____ with in the first 15-30 minutes after being born?

8. What are the causes of scours?

9. What is the difference between passive immunity and active immunity?

10. Nasal discharge, dry cough, high temperature, diarrhea, and difficulty breathing are Signs of?

11. How old is a calf when their rumen is almost fully developed?

12. If your calf was born Dec 15, 2022 what class would she be shown in?

13. What are the 6 essential nutrients for dairy cattle?

14. Hay and silage are two types of _____

15. At what age can a healthy heifer be bred?

16. _____ is the most important nutrient needed to survive.

17. What year did dairy cattle first appear in the United States?

18. The dairy animal's family tree is known as their _____

19. The most important element of colostrum is that it contains large amounts of

20. What kind of vision do dairy cattle have?